To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to formally confirm that Samuel Martineau successfully completed a 4-week internship with Xata on our Frontend Team, from July 29th to August 23rd, 2024.

During his time with us, Samuel consistently exceeded our expectations. He tackled complex problems with remarkable efficiency, often resolving issues in a fraction of the time initially estimated. His problem-solving skills were a significant asset to the team, and his ability to understand and address intricate challenges was evident throughout the internship.

Moreover, Samuel demonstrated exceptional collaboration skills. He effectively worked with other members across various departments, contributing meaningfully to our projects and seamlessly integrating into our team dynamics. His proactive approach and willingness to take on responsibilities made a noticeable impact on our workflows.

We are confident that Samuel's contributions during his internship will continue to influence our projects positively, and we believe he will be an asset to any organization he chooses to join in the future.

Should you require any further information regarding Samuel's internship, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Monica Sarbu

CEO and founder
